

Guest at the silesian nobility

Highlights:

Five-day bus trip to Lower Silesia: walk "in the footsteps of Joseph von Eichendorff" with readings from his works, visit the House of Gerhard Hauptmann in Agnetendorf, have an easy walk in the mountains, visit Wroclaw, see an organ concert in the amazing Friedenskirche in Schweidnitz and have a walk through Dresden.

Day 1: Departure from Frankfurt/Main Central Station at 9 o'clock. Along the historic „High Way“ we reach our hotel in the Valley of Hirschberg by the evening.

Day 2: Our first optional day trip goes to Castle Lomnitz, after visiting the castle there is time for a break. In the afternoon we see the house, where Gerhard Hauptmann lived for 45 years.

Day 3: The second optional excursion takes us via Schweidnitz to Wroclaw. In Schweidnitz we visit the Friedenskirche and listen to a short organ recital. In Wroclaw we see the Ring, the Cathedral on the Island and the Century-hall. Then you have free time to explore this graceful city.

Day 4: The last optional excursion takes us to the Sudetes Mountains. We visit the Church of Wang, an 800-year-old wooden church, that comes from Norway. After lunch we take a chairlift to the crest of the Mountains from where we take an easy hike back to the church of Wang. In the evening you will hear excerpts from Eichendorff's novel: "Out of the life of a scoundrel."
„Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts“

Day 5: Return via Dresden. We park at the Semper Opera and go over the Brühl Terrace along the Museum Albertinum to the „Frauenkirche“. We see the Hofkirche, the Taschenberg palace and the Zwinger. In the evening we are back in Frankfurt/Main.

Services:

- journey in a modern bus
- 4 x accommodation with half board
- English speaking tour-guide
- musical / literary evening
- travel insurance certificate

Dates and prices see in the german version of this website